What Steve and Tansy do when they are not composing!

STEVE: As a top TV session musician, Steve has worked extensively for the BBC, LWT, Central and Granada Television, and was the resident Bass player for BBC's Pebble Mill at One. With over 30 years in the music business, Steve has worked with a huge array of artists - too many to mention, but they range from Shirley Bassey to The Spice Girls, Ruthie Henshall to Michael Ball, George Mellie to Gerard Kenny, and Basil Brush to The Two Ronnies...! Steve has toured and recorded extensively throughout Europe with the Jazz Rock Band New York and is the Bass player for the American Guitar legend, Jerry Donahue. He has also played for numerous West End shows and played Guitar and Chapman Stick for the National Theatre's acclaimed production of Death of a Salesman. On the classical front, Steve has played and recorded with the London Symphony Orchestra, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and the BBC Radio Orchestra. Rumour has it, Steve has also been spotted in an episode Peak Practice on the Double Bass...

TANSY: Has spent nearly 20 years at the top end of the musical theatre world as a Musical Director and Pianist for over 40 shows. Encompassing the West-End, National and European tours, shows include Phantom of the Opera, Wicked, Fame, Jesus Christ Superstar, Les Miserables, Beauty & the Beast, La Cage aux Folles, Scrooge, Evita, The Blues Brothers, Me & My Girl, and Cats to name but a few. She has also been an MD and pianist at the National Theatre on such critically acclaimed productions as The Princes Play, Volpone, Money, Amy's View and Closer. As a session musician, Tansy has made numerous recordings for Film, TV and Radio, ranging from appearing with Michael Crawford on the National Lottery to accompanying a cross-dressing Mrs Malaprop on late night Channel 4...
